NOTH THAN SURRENDER ANDIT COMMITS SUICIDE

Man-Dressed Man Forced Bank Employes to Stand Aside While He Secured Funds.

AGO, Oct. 14.—A fashionably-dressed man who early yesterday afternoon forced the savings bank of Irskine & Co., in Highland Park, an aristocratic suburb on shore, twenty-five miles north of Chicago, committed suicide by shooting himself in the mouth when he was forced to stand aside while a posse of citizens.

Companion of the robber, who had him to the bank in an automobile, was captured immediately after the robbery, forcing the perpetrator of the daring daytime to flee on foot. He was in a running duel with Town Sheriff John Sheehan, who was the target for many bullets from the fugitive revolver, one of which went through the sleeve of his coat. After several blocks and failing to track his pursuers, the robber ran closely followed by Sheehan. When he saw Sheehan in the street with his revolver leveled at his fugitive, he put the muzzle of his revolver in his mouth and a shot which resulted in his immediate death. The identity of the man and his companion is unknown.

The robbery was conducted in a daring and a spectacular manner, the robber securing about $500 in gold and bills after he had forced

John C. Duffy, cashier of the bank, into the cashier's cage just after the closing of business for the day.

"Call everyone in here into that cage, or I'll blow your head off. Hurry up," said the robber as he covered them with a revolver. Duffy, unarmed, complied with the demand. The bookkeeper and the receiving teller came into the cage while the intruder helped himself to all the money in sight. He carefully tucked the gold and bills into his pockets and then exclaimed: "If any of you attempt to follow me, I will kill you." He started for the door, and Duffy immediately telephoned the marshal's office across the street. By the time the robber reached the automobile, Sheehan was running toward the bank. At the sight of him, the robber broke into a run, and citizens held the chauffeur. The chase after the fugitive was a thrilling one, but ended in his suicide within a few minutes. All the money taken from the bank was found in his clothes.

The robbers had called at the bank early in the day.

It was learned that the dead robber had registered at the Avenue House in Evanston, Ill., Wednesday night, as J. C. Wilson, Milwaukee, Wis., and that the automobile which took him to the Highland Park bank had been loaned him by J. E. Kelly, a wealthy mining

FERRER RETAINS COM- POSURE TO THE END.

BARCELONA, Oct. 14.—Prof. Francisco Ferrer, the Spanish educator and convicted revolutionist, was shot yesterday.

The execution was done at the fortress of Montjuich, where the prisoner had been confined since his condemnation by court-martial. The doomed man faced the firing squad without flinching and fell dead at the first volley.

Except for a momentary expression of emotion immediately preceding his death, he retained his composure to the last.

The firing squad was drawn by lot and the command to fire was given by Gen. Eserin. Just before his eyes were bandaged Ferrer examined his will, which had been drafted for him by Senor Permayor, dean of the notaries, while the preparations for the execution were going on. The contents of the will have not been made public.

TWO BALLOONS SEEN OVER SAINT ANDREWS BAY.

PENSACOLA, Oct. 14.—Parties coming to the city from St. Andrews, east of Pensacola, state that Tuesday night two balloons passed near that city, moving in a southwesterly direction. At the time they were sighted they appeared to be between 500 and 1,000 feet in the air and moving at a good rate of speed. Both were moving directly towards the Gulf and were watched until they disappeared over the Gulf. The parties who saw the balloons and who are familiar with conditions state that the wind was in such direction that the balloons would be compelled to fall in the Gulf.

TRIED TO KILL FAMILY, THEN KILLS HERSELF.

APPLETON, Wis., Oct. 14.—Miss Lucy Dietz, aged 26, of Hortonville, Wis., one of five children at the Dietz home to attend the funeral of their father, which occurred Tuesday, committed suicide early yesterday, after one of the brothers is said to have found enough strychnine in the coffee pot to kill every member of the family. It is believed that Miss Dietz realized she had been trapped and took a dose of the poison.

The Dietz estate, in which all the children are interested, is valued at about $25,000.

RICH WIDOW ENTERS KNOXVILLE SCHOOL.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 13.—A Knoxville dispatch says that Mrs. Elizabeth Loftis, aged 65, a wealthy widow, has entered the public schools as a pupil in the first grade. She goes to school with her two grandchildren. She has learned her letters since school opened and can figure to the rule of three.

man of Goldfield, Nev., who lives in Evanston part of the year.

The man under arrest, believed by the police to have been a confederate of the robber, is Keelyn's chauffeur. His name is Fred Schwab and he has been a trusted employ of Keelyn in the West and in Chicago for several years.

Schwab declares that he knew nothing about the character of his passenger and that he had suspected nothing until he saw him take to his heels after leaving the bank. Keelyn told the authorities how Wilson had gained his confidence in a talk at the hotel Wednesday night, relating to him incidents of life in the West with which he was familiar. Yesterday when he sought to hire an automobile, Keelyn suggested that he take his. Keelyn also loaned him his fur automobile coat, which the robber was wearing when he shot himself.

TUG BOAT WENT DOWN; ELEVEN MEN PERISHED

Floating Equipment of East Coast Extension and Uncompleted Work Badly Damaged.

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 14.—News reached here late yesterday afternoon of the sinking of the tugs "Sybil" and "Sadie" at Bahia Honda during Monday's hurricane, and the loss of the eleven members of the crew of the "Sybil," including Capt. Parker. The crew of the "Sadie" escaped.

This news was brought here by the relief expedition sent out by The Metropolis, the local afternoon newspaper.

The loss of life on the tug "Sybil" includes, besides Capt. Parker, Engineer Fox, Pilot Whitmore, Engineer Peterson, and seven deck hands.

The following statement was given out by Engineer Ernest Cotton of the Florida East Coast railway:

"The loss of life on the Florida East Coast extension is limited to the crew of the tug "Sybil" and Timekeeper Brown at Marathon, a total of twelve persons."

"The floating equipment of the road and uncompleted work were badly damaged. There was, however, no damage to the concrete work at any point. All of our camps were more or less wrecked, but the large forces of workmen are being cared for and have sufficient supplies of food. The men behaved well and already every gang has gone to work clearing away the wreckage and preparing for reopening the extension to traffic."

The track north of Marathon is washed out at several points, but the extent of the damage has not yet been determined.

Timekeeper J. H. Brown, an old employee of the Florida East Coast railway, was drowned at Marathon.

It was announced late yesterday that the P. and O. steamers, which have been connecting with trains at Knights Key dock, will begin sailing today from Miami, continuing this service until the extension is again opened to traffic.

The Metropolis expedition reached a washout of 4,000 feet of track between Manatee and Jewish creek, on the Florida East Coast extension. The track also was shifted fifty feet. The provisions that the colony had at Jewish creek are running low.

Little Girl Lost Balance; Drowned in Tub of Water

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 14.—While playing happily within easy call of her mother's voice, little Clara Harbin, the two-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren L. Harbin, of 72 Fair Route, fell accidentally into a tub of water yesterday afternoon at her grandfather's house on Leggett street and was drowned almost immediately.

Mrs. Harbin had carried the child over to E. A. Harbin's home, which is near her own, and while the family had gathered into the sitting-room talking, little Clara was permitted to play around the room and in the hall.

She had been absent for several moments before Mrs. Harbin noticed it and she immediately asked as to the child's whereabouts.

"Why, out on the back porch playing," answered the older Mrs. Harbin.

"It's rather cold, though, and you had better bring her in."

The child's mother then opened the door of the sitting-room and went out on the porch and the next moment the older people were startled by a scream.

The child had been found, lying in the tub, with just her head immersed, as the water was only about a foot deep. Evidently she had been leaning over the tub and paddling her hands in the water when she lost her balance.

A physician was called in, but before his arrival the breath of life had gone out of the little body.

Clara had just passed her second birthday and had never known a day's sickness. She was an unusually bright and beautiful child, with golden hair and fair complexion. She was the pet and favorite of the entire neighborhood.

Increase in Equipment of Southern Textile Mills

BALTIMORE, Md., Oct. 14.—During the first nine months of this year, according to a survey in this week's issue of The Manufacturers' Record, plans have been made for the addition to the Southern textile equipment of 834,428 spindles and 16,488 looms, representing approximately an investment of $21,000,000. Of the total, 176,336 spindles and 3,878 looms representing an investment of about $4,400,000 are the embodiment of the plans made during the third quarter of the year, which in scope did not equal those of either the first or the second quarter. The addition of spindles and looms to established mills continues to be the predominating feature of the growth of Southern cotton manufacturing facilities, for of the total contemplated investment in the third quarter of the year about $2,600,000 representing 103,336 spindles and 1,878 looms to be added to existing mills, and about $1,825,000 represents 73,000 spindles and 1,800 looms in new mills. North Carolina leads the South in proposed additions, 863,976 spindles and 1,250 looms, with South Carolina second, 40,400 spindles and 1,278 looms. Tennessee third, 25,000 spindles and 800 looms, and Georgia fourth, 22,160 spindles and 356 looms. An interesting feature of Southern textile history during the past three months is the activity in the establishment of knitting mills. Plans for eight of them, six in North Carolina, one in Mississippi and one in Virginia, with an aggregate capital of $245,000, were announced.

NEW MODE OF TRAVEL FOR T. & J. RAILWAY

PASSENGER MOTOR CAR WILL BE PLACED IN SERVICE.

Better Time, Better Facilities, and a
General Improvement All Around
Is Promised the Public.

A new mode of transportation is soon to be operated through this section by the T. & J. railway, which will put on a service between Sampson City and Gainesville that will always "be on time," and at the same time do away with a great deal of the worry of smoke and dirt in travel.

It is understood that the company have placed an order for new motor car, sufficiently large to accommodate a number of passengers, express and mail, and that it will be used mainly on the north end of the line for the connection with the G. S. & F. railway, at Sampson.

The new motor car will be a revelation in traveling for this section, and while they are used almost exclusively in some places, it will be the first to be operated in Florida, and probably in the South, but it has been of such long-standing usage in the North and East that the management believes that no trouble will be experienced in handling the business by this method. On the other hand the cost will be decreased, a great deal more comfort will be derived, and in all it will prove a revelation in the mode of travel.

Just how long before this new service will be placed in operation has not been stated by Manager Glass, but he hopes to have it within the next few weeks, and then the road will be enabled to handle a much larger business in and out of Gainesville, as it will have the proper accommodations.

BAIRD OPENS TONIGHT.

"St. Elmo," Highly Endorsed, Will Hold Boards This Evening.

But though the character stands one of the most interesting studies in English literature, it by no means holds the interest to the exclusion of others of almost equal importance in the development of the plot. The character of Edna Earl, the young orphan who as the result of a railroad accident is taken into the home of St. Elmo's mother, is a type of equal interest to that of St. Elmo himself and for entirely different reasons.

As St. Elmo after his disillusionment becomes a thing of evil, so Edna Earle is the exact antithesis, simple in manner, straightforward in thought and action, seeking only to follow the best dictates of her conscience and not consciously appreciative of the honesty and purity of her motives.

In these degenerate days when so many authors seek their inspiration in the slums and underworld, a character such as that of Edna Earl is positively refreshing, for she is a girl of purity and sweetness without being priggish, and best of all, she is essentially human. The minor character of Allan Hammond, St. Elmo's tutor whose love for his old pupil endures even after St. Elmo has killed Hammond's son in a duel and brought about the death of his daughter as part of his scheme of fancied revenge, is a type as finely drawn as that of Victor Hugo's Bishop in "Les Misérables," though here sincerity rather than dramatic placement is the keynote of the man's character.

A lovable old man of a type still to be found in the smaller cities, bearing his burden without complaint and seeking only the good of his little flock.

Mrs. Murray, the patrician daughter of the South, bearing with resignation the burden of her son's excesses and never withholding the mother love that so often is sorely tried, is another type easy to be recognized, and in the characters of Gertrude Manning and Gordon Leigh, who became man and wife after having vowed eternal fidelity to others, is a touch essentially human and is faithful to life as in the more sincere and lasting love of St. Elmo and Edna Earl.

It is because these and other characters are so thoroughly human, and because the author with lovely touch has painted an absolutely faithful picture of the best life of the South, that the novel maintains its great popularity today in all sections of the country and in changing to the stage these people of fiction Mr. Twomey has merely brought back to life the people.

FREE IF IT FAILS

Your Money Back if You Are Not Satisfied With the Medicine We Recommend.

We are so positive that our remedy will permanently relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine at our expense should it fail to produce satisfactory results.

It is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Laxatives or cathartics do much harm. They cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels and tend to make constipation more chronic. Besides, their use becomes a habit that is dangerous.

Constipation is caused by a weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or descending colon. To expect permanent relief you must therefore tone up and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of the world's greatest research chemist. As an active agent it possesses the valuable qualities of the best-known intestinal tonics as well as being particularly pleasant and prompt in its results.

We want you to try Rexall Orlie's on our recommendation. They are exceedingly pleasant to take, being eaten like candy, and are ideal for children, delicate persons and old folks, as well as for the robust. They act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels. They apparently have a neutral action on other associate organs of glands. They do not purge, cause excessive looseness nor create any inconvenience whatever.

They may be taken at any time, day or night.

They will positively relieve chronic or habitual constipation, if not of surgical variety, and the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailment, if taken with regularity for a reasonable length of time. They come in two sizes of packages, 12 tablets, 10 cents; 36 tablets, 25 cents. Sold in Gainesville only at our store—The Rexall Store. J. W. McCollum & Co., corner East Main and Union streets.

SHE PUT HER FLOWERS

NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—"Please do not put any more flowers on my grave" was the message on a piece of cardboard which Mrs. McDonald of Brooklyn found on the grave in Mount Olivet Cemetery, on which for fifteen years she had been placing flowers weekly.

Believing that it was the grave of a dear relative, Mrs. McDonald was indignant and protested to the superintendent of the cemetery.

He looked up the records and found that her relative was really buried some distance from the grave which she had been so faithfully decorating.

It is true that high prices make prosperity—a mockery.

The good ship "Roosevelt" will have its Ananias Club, too.

Anyway, this North Pole matter permits us to forget Harry Thaw.

Here is satire: The new and drastic prohibition law in Alabama is known as the "Fuller" bill.

How to soar is partly solved. How to alight gracefully and avoid the anti-climax is still largely a bird secret.

One of Thaw's principal delusions appears to have been that an unlimited supply of money would accomplish anything.

Wu Ting Fang is sent to Washington and recalled so often that it is a wonder he doesn't sometimes meet himself in mid-ocean.

Dwelling houses are now becoming more scarce, but there are yet a number of dwellings awaiting tenants at reasonable rental. Read the want ads. when you desire to rent a house.

Incensed at the diminution of his proportion as a daily news feature, Theodore Roosevelt may discover King Solomon's mines and nail the stars and stripes to a conical pile of gems.

Parties who spent last winter in Gainesville will be agreeably surprised at the growth of the town when they return this fall. Scores of new houses have been erected during their absence.

Over 39,000 Americans have emigrated to Canada in the past three months. Anyway, we have the consolation of knowing that Canada will be developed in the right way by the right people.

The fact that people are often affected by their environments is generally admitted. But it is not so generally recognized that it is possible for people to affect their environments. A sunny smile, hopefulness, tact and resolute purpose can change to a wonderful extent the most unfavorable surroundings.

Having failed to persuade Hon. S. J. Hilburn of Palatka to enter the race for Congress the opposition to Congressman Clark will naturally center upon Senator L. W. Zim. We have always had an affectionate feeling for Louis Zim, and if he were running for any other office than the one our present Congressman so admirably fills we would most likely vote for him.

To the fanfare of trumpets, the skirt of bagpipes and much pomp generally a rich American girl was recently married in the Scotland highlands to the pretender to a small European throne. Apparently the length of the groom's name and title was offset by the shortness of his purse, for money lenders are now suing him for money advanced on the strength of his matrimonial prospects. Of course the girl will pay the debts. That is usually one of the conditions for marrying a foreign title.

GETTING BADLY HIT.

The liquor business continues to receive hard body blows, and they are given from all directions. The Southern States keep on passing prohibition laws or in strengthening those already in existence. In other States county and other local option laws are also making themselves felt. The result of it all is a diminished consumption of liquor, as the decreased internal revenue returns clearly show.

The same story comes from other lands. The revenue from liquor has dropped considerably in Great Britain, and now an interesting fact comes from Germany. That country has increased largely the tax on beer. The brewers and retail sellers have sought to recoup themselves by raising the price, and here is the result in Kiel: In the government dockyard of that city the 8,000 workmen were accustomed to drink 12,000 bottles of beer every day. These workmen resented the increased tax and turned to milk, coffee and mineral waters, and as one result the 12,000 daily bottles of beer have fallen to 120. Another result is better work and far less loss of time by the workmen.

The money cost of the destruction of property through carelessness or wastefulness in this country amounts to many hundred of millions of dollars every year. But great as that is the money value of the loss of health, limb and life for which this carelessness and wastefulness are responsible is far greater. In large cities the smoke and soot cause ill health and disease and lessen the ability to work, and that means poverty for thousands. Our factories, mines and railroads take a yearly toll of life and limb that is appalling. That the railroads alone last year paid over fifty-six million dollars for personal injuries and damages will give one a faint idea at least of the havoc made. The one remedy for wastefulness is judicious economy, and that for personal injuries is a greater regard for human life.

Not unoften the public pulse thrills at the story of some heroic deed performed under trying circumstances. All such acts have a value beyond the immediate one, for they increase our faith in man and are an incentive to self-denying sacrifice. But let us not forget in paying well deserved honor to such heroes that in almost every community people are leading heroic lives every day. Newspapers do not mention them, no Carnegie medal is bestowed upon them, yet none the less, patiently, unobtrusively, courageously, in the midst of well-nigh crushing conditions of domestic trials, business difficulties or physical disability, they lead the hero life, and though their experience may be unrecognized by men the recording angels take note of all.

General Law, editor of The Bartow Courier-Informant, made good in every instance as a political prophet at the last election, and the following from his last issue shows that he is still possessed of the political sagacity for which he has become noted: "It is said that Hon. Ion L. Farris of Jacksonville, speaker of the House of Representatives in the last Legislature, has decided to become a candidate for Congress in Frank Clark's district. Ion's political bark was completely wrecked by his course in the Legislature. He may have repaired it sufficiently to attempt another voyage, but there is little doubt that this time it will find a port on the head waters of salt river."

Perhaps when Mr. Roosevelt gets to Europe he will swim the English Channel.

Edwin Hawley of New York is worth watching as a railroad captain. He has proved himself in contests with Harriman for organization, and now he appears, with a controlling influence in 4870 miles of road, as the man next likeliest to weld together a transcontinental system under his own influence. The acquisition of Chicago, Cincinnati & Louisville, giving his Chesapeake & Ohio its own entrance into Chicago, would make the link. To the westward, Minneapolis & St. Paul, Iowa Central roads, Chicago & Alton and Kansas City, Mexico & Orient, from Kansas City to Topolobampo, on the western coast of Old Mexico, make up the chain to the Southwest and Northwest alike. It means a trunk line from the Twin Cities and from Kansas City to tidewater at Newport News and Old Point Comfort.

Experts are continually coining euphemistic phrases to replace terse and more expressive words. This is freely done when the moral and business delinquencies of rich people are concerned. But the new chief of police in Chicago shows in this respect a delicate consideration of some of the rank and file of his force. It seems that some of them have drunk the brandy which is found in the medicine case of each patrol wagon. Chief Stewart does not say the men took it, but he has ordered ammonia to be substituted for brandy, on the ground that "brandy evaporates too rapidly." With such considerate euphemism surely no policeman's feelings will be hurt.

Notwithstanding the comfortable assurance that Halley's comet, which is traveling through space at a breakneck speed, will not come nearer to this earth than 13,000,000 miles, there are lots of people who are already worrying themselves over it. They fear that we shall be smothered with star dust or that the comet with vicious action of its tail will sweep all the people of the earth as easily as a woman sweeps the crumbs off the table. To know that no comet or other celestial body has ever done the slightest harm to this world ought to calm their fears, but it will not. It is really astonishing how many people do seem to enjoy making themselves miserable.

Money is rolling into the Tampa treasury at a lively rate. During the month of September there was collected $7,298.96 as against $4,276.31 for the corresponding month of last year. These amounts do not include the fines collected by the police court nor the receipts from dog licenses, cemetery, sanitary or house-moving licenses.

Detectives of the Jacksonville police department, aided by a Pinkerton man, have recovered part of a list of $2,000 worth of silverware and other articles stolen from the residence of E. M. Barbour, on Spring street, during the family's absence the past summer. T. P. Buzhardt, an aged white man, has been arrested in connection with the case, and is charged with acting as a "fence" for a gang of negro burglars.

The Palatka correspondent writing to The Times-Union of Thursday, says: "The county commissioners, in special session today, turned down the various petitions for a wet or dry election in Putnam county on the ground of irregularities. This was a consideration of the petitions from the last meeting, which was a regular session of the board. This disposes of the matter for two years. The wet element is very much disappointed at the outcome of the matter, and there is talk of preferring charges against the board of county commissioners by the leaders of the 'moist' forces."

George Wiggins, the negro employee of Marion McLeod, when ordered to surrender the gun with which he had been terrorizing the negroes in and about Needmore, four miles east of Citra, Saturday night while drunk, turned and shot Mr. McLeod in the arm, then escaped. Later McLeod headed a party of men who went out in search of the negro, found their man, who turned on them, seriously wounding McLeod in the abdomen. Wiggins was slightly wounded, but again escaped. Another posse of citizens, headed by Deputies Shearouse and Stevens, surrounded Wiggins in a swamp, when he surrendered to Sheriff Galloway on a promise of protection from mob violence, and is now a prisoner in the Ocala jail. Mr. McLeod, who is a prominent turpentine operator, has been taken to Jacksonville for medical attention.

BREWERS NOT WORRIED BY PROHIBITION WAVE.

CINCINNATI, Ohio, October 13.—At the annual meeting of the Ohio Brewers' Association here yesterday it was announced that local option had not injured the brewers' business as much as was believed by prohibitionists.

"Although more than 50 counties in Ohio voted dry," it was announced, "about 75 per cent of the saloons still remain for the counties which voted dry contain comparatively few saloons. Most of the saloons are in cities like Cincinnati, Cleveland, Columbus and Dayton, and these cities will continue wet."

DISCOVER LOST MAN SERVING SENTENCE.

ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 13.—Missing from his boarding-house for about a month, and believed to be the victim of foul play, George House, in the employ of the Packard Land Company, of Pensacola, Fla., was yesterday traced to the jail of the District of Columbia, where he is serving a term of nine months for assault.

When House dropped out of sight, a diligent search was made for him. Not until yesterday was it learned that under the name of Williams he had been convicted and sentenced.

GEORGIA MAN HELD IN TAMPA FOR MURDER.

TAMPA, Fla., Oct. 13.—Wanted in Clinch county, Georgia, for murder of Chris Vining, W. W. Delks was arrested here last night. Delks was telling a friend of the killing while riding into Tampa on a train. The conversation was overheard and the police notified. Delks admits he is the man wanted, and the Georgia authorities have been communicated with.

Delks claims the killing, which occurred on August 12, was accidental.

CORONER'S JURY HOLD AN INVESTIGATION

YOUNG ROBINSON'S DEATH DEEPLY REGRETTED AT ARCHER.

Careless Handling of Gasoline Alleged to Have Caused Number of Accidents Heretofore.

In the case at Archer wherein Albert Robinson was burned to death as a result of gasoline, Justice Chamblin decided that an inquest was necessary in the matter.

The jury, which was in session for some time, and who heard a number of witnesses, rendered a verdict to the effect that "Albert Robinson came to his death by being burned through the careless handling of gasoline by himself and fellow-employees of the Crown Bottling Works." G. R. Linus was foreman of the jury.

Rumor has it that during the past several months a number of cases wherein boys and employees have been "tampering" with gasoline have been reported, but the death of young Robinson caused the matter to be investigated.

The funeral of the young man was held at Williston, his home, being shipped from Archer on Thursday afternoon. His death has cast a gloom over the boys who were associated with him in his daily labors and the affair is deeply regretted.

Detroit defeated Pittsburgh yesterday in the sixth game of the series by the score of 5 to 4. By winning this game the Tigers split even with the National League champions and the seventh game will have to be played to decide "who is who."

The attendance yesterday was the smallest of any day during the series, as only 22,000 spectators crowded through the gates of the Detroit baseball park.

JACKSONVILLE VISITED

BY $40,000 CONFLAGRATION.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Oct. 14.—Flames which originated in the second story of the J. E. T. Bowden building, 125 to 137 Bridge street, shortly after 9 o'clock last night, partially destroyed that structure, which was originally known as the Coliseum, and damaged the Lillenthal building, next adjoining to the north and extending to the corner of Bridge and Adams streets. The damage totals between $35,000 and $40,000. Insurance will cover loss on the building and the large part of the loss on the stock of business houses which occupied the first floor and rooming house on the second.

The origin of the fire, which will probably never be definitely known, is thought to have been either the accidental overturning of a gasoline stove in quarters occupied by colored performers of the Baxter vaudeville house, or from spontaneous combustion in the storage room of the Britain second-hand store on the second floor. Mrs. Brittain declares that the fire did not start in her place, while Baxter says it did not start in his part of the building.

COWS SLEEP TWO DAYS

AFTER EATING THIS GRASS.

SANTA FE, N. M., Oct. 14.—While making a trip through the southwestern part of New Mexico, Herbert W. Wolcott of Alamogordo, N. M., found a grass from which he believes a narcotic may be extracted which will take the place of those now known to medical science.

"The grass is known as 'sleepy grass' to the natives of New Mexico, near the reservation," said Mr. Wolcott. "Cattle and horses will eat it the first time they see it. It makes them fall to the ground in their tracks and lie in a state of coma for two days. When they wake up they have no ill effects from the opiate. But they will never eat it again; in fact, they will run away if it is offered to them."

This is sleepy grass, not to be confused with the loco weed. The grass is not unlike the Kentucky blue grass in appearance. The loco weed is a plant and bears flowers. Horses and cattle become loco fiends and are worthless after tasting the deadly stuff."

ALEXANDER'S SNAKE.

A Story of Magic and Credulity In the Olden Days.

No snake that ever lived won greater fame for the time than Alexander's. Lucian tells the story. Apollonius, a master of the magic arts, had many disciples, among whom was a practicing physician who lived in Abonotichus, a small town on the shore of the Black sea. There Alexander was born of humble parentage and imbibed from the old doctor all that he had learned from Apollonius of medicine and magic. He was a lad of striking appearance, tall, handsome, with the head of hair, lustrous brown eyes and a voice sweet and limpid. "God grant," wrote Lucian, who knew him, "that I may never meet with such another. His coming was wonderful, his dexterity matchless. His eagerness for knowledge, his capacity for learning and power of memory were equally extraordinary."

Such was the well favored young peasant who sallied forth from his native town in search of fame and fortune. Soon he fell in with one Cocounas, a shrewd tipster for the races and somewhat of a juggler. The two rogues joined forces and meandered about telling fortunes. Arriving at Pella, they found a great number of huge, harmless snakes which lived in the houses, played and slept with the children and destroyed poisonous rats. Alexander promptly purchased one of the largest, a veritable monster, so tame that it would coil about his body and remain in any desired position. Then he made a human face for it out of linen, painted it ingeniously and shaped it so that the mouth would open and shut by an arrangement of horsehair, letting the forked tongue shoot in and out at the will of the master. Having no further use for Cocounas, he either administered poison to him or let him die from some infection and returned with his snake to his native town. There he declared himself a prophet and announced that the god Aesculapius was about to appear. The people were credulous, excited and eager for a new divinity.

When the great day arrived Alexander pretended to discover in a puddle of water a goose egg which he had placed there after removing the contents, substituting a small embryo snake just born and carefully sealing the shell with wax. When the multitude had gathered he broke the shell and produced the tiny creature, which in a few moments grew to be the monster from Pella by the simple process of substitution. Thereafter the big snake, believed to be Aesculapius, led a busy life. He gave seances, told fortunes in writing and even spoke freely, with the aid of the prophet's ventriloquial powers. Alexander grew rich and powerful, kept a small army of retainers and spies, wielded no little influence over the government even at Rome and died at a ripe old age in the fullness of his renown. What became of the snake nobody knows. Probably at the last the prophet dispatched the faithful creature to prevent the discovery of his deception after his death.—George Harvey in North American Review.

GENERAL NEWS IN BRIEF

Pennsylvania's largest individual property owner among the negroes is Robert Thompson of Carlisle. He is a builder and contractor and owns 141 houses and 127 building lots.

The advance registration of students at the University of Michigan shows an increase of 356 in the literary department, compared with last year. Other departments show a slight decrease, except the department of Pharmacy, in which there is a falling

Dr. Alexander Lambert, the family physician of Ex-President Roosevelt and a professor at the Cornell Medical College, announces that he has obtained a speedy cure for both drug habit and alcoholism. He has experimented with many cases at the Bellevue Hospital and has the utmost confidence in efficiency. No matter how much slave to those habits the subject may have been, Dr. Lambert believes he can restore will power and self-spect in as brief a period as five days. He does not imperil the ethics of the profession by advertising this a secret process. The ingredients of the remedy are tincture of belladonna, fluid extract of hyoscyamus, which mingled in the proper proportions will eradicate the fatal craving which has ruined so many lives and homes.

The Kind Cat.

A neighbor of old Mrs. Harrington killed a fine pig one day. He cut it up and hung the pieces in his woodshed. Mrs. Harrington's cat climbed into the shed that night, stole a large pork chop and carried it home to her mistress. The minister happened to call on the old lady the next day. She was just frying the chop. She told the minister how miraculously it had been brought to her by the cat.

"And, oh, sir," she said plausibly, "it was almost beautiful to see the way the sweet animal brought me the pork chop. It quite recalled to my mind what we read in Holy Writ about Elijah and the ravens." Exchange.

The Courtship Gate.

We have been shown a design for an upholstered front gate which seems destined to become very popular. The outside is cushioned, and there is a warm soapstone on each side, the inside step being adjustable, so that a short girl can bring her lips to the line of any given mustache without trouble. If the gate is occupied at 10:30 p.m., an iron hand extends from one gate post, takes the young man by the left ear, turns him around, and he is at once started toward home by a steel foot. The girl can, if she likes, get this part at a later hour than 10:30. —Jones County (Ga.) News.

Gibraltar's Searchlight Battery.

For ships to pass around Gibraltar, England's and the world's greatest fortress, without being observed even at night is a practical impossibility, owing to the great battery of searchlights arranged along the bottom of the rock. A ship running either in or out runs into one of the fixed beams of light and is revealed. A moving beam of light then follows her until the lookout officers are satisfied as to her intentions. —Popular Mechanics.

A Shaking Up

May all be very well so far as the rusts are concerned, but not when it comes to chills and fever and malaria. Quit the quinine and take a real cure—Ballard's Herbine. Contains no harmful drugs and is as certain as taxes. If it doesn't cure, you get your money back. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Clothes.

"Clothes don't make the man," quoted a sage.

"They made me!" said a retired tailor.

"And where should I be if it wasn't for suits?" chimed in a lawyer's clerk.

Something From Nothing. "It is impossible to take something from nothing," quoted the wise guy. "Well, you come pretty close to it when you take the conceit out of some people," added the simple mug. —Philadelphia Record.

NATURE'S WARNING

Gainesville People Must Recognize and Heed It.

Kidney ills come quietly—mysteriously.

But nature always warns you.

Notice the kidney secretions.

If there are settling and sediment.

Passages frequent, scanty, painful.

It's time then to use Doan's Kidney Pills.

To ward off Bright's disease or diabetes.

Doan's have done great work in this locality.

Mrs. J. L. Warren of Starke, Fla.

says: "For some time I was a victim of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, causing me the greatest annoyance and I suffered constantly from backaches and dull pains through the kidneys. I could not rest well and in the morning arose feeling tired and worn out. My back became very lame and I often found it difficult to get around. I at length read about Doan's Kidney Pills and procured a box. Since using them, I have been free from backaches and the soreness and lameness has disappeared. The annoyance from the kidney secretions also ceased and I am able to sleep well. Doan's Kidney Pills benefited me wonderfully and I can recommend them as the best kidney remedy I ever used."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

The Value of Good Digestion

Is easy to figure if you know what your stomach is worth. Kodol keeps the stomach at par value, by insuring good digestion. Kodol cures Dyspepsia.

Kodol insures good digestion by absolutely duplicating Nature's normal process, in perfectly digesting all food taken into the stomach.

While Kodol is doing this, the stomach is resting—and becoming strong and healthy. A strong and healthy stomach guarantees a sound and active brain.

The man with a sound stomach—a stomach that is doing for the body just what Nature intended it to do—is the man who is always prepared for any emergency. He is "there with the goods."

The man with a sick stomach, is a man sick all over. When the stomach is irritated by undigested food, the blood and heart are directly affected. Then dullness, unnatural sleepiness, sick-headaches, vertigo and fainting spells, and even serious brain trouble develop. Kodol will prevent these.

Spurring the stomach and brain to special effort by "tonics" and "stimulants" doesn't cure anything, or accomplish any good. Neither does dieting. Indigestion and the serious ailments which it induces can be averted and corrected only by natural means.
